

Glenn Drinkwater |

Glenn Drinkwater, 53, of Littleton, died Thursday, March 3, 2011, at Tufts Medical Center in Boston. Born in Lowell, April 14, 1957, Glenn lived much of his life in Framingham, where he met and married his wife of 20 years, Laura Jane (Kinsley) Drinkwater. They moved to Littleton in 1992. Glenn was predeceased by his father, Robert Drinkwater; his mother, Marvel (Donaldson) Mills; and his stepfather, Ralph Mills. In addition to his wife, Glenn is survived by his four children, Heather Jane, Elizabeth Katherine, Sarah Ann, and Benjamin Robert, all of Littleton. He is also survived by his brothers, Robert (Carol) Drinkwater of Amherst, David (Bernadette) Drinkwater of Whitinsville, Darrell (Paula) Drinkwater of Kennebunk, Maine, and Paula (Steven) White of Marlborough, Conn.; and 19 nieces and nephews. Glenn graduated from Northeastern University with a degree in sociology, after which he pursued a career managing group homes for learning disabled adults. A dedicated athlete as a youth, Glenn was an avid Boston Red Sox fan and enjoyed most sports. He was supportive of a number of charitable organizations, particularly Habitat for Humanity. Glenn was an active member of The Congregational Church of Littleton, where he participated on many boards and committees and in particular was a devoted and beloved leader of the high school and middle school youth groups. Additionally, Glenn coached Littleton Youth Baseball and was a former board member, coached Littleton Youth Soccer, and was a den leader within Pack 2 of the Littleton Boy Scouts. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Badger Funeral Home, 374 King St., Littleton. Calling hours are Friday, March 11, from 2 to 4 p.m., and 7 to 9 p.m., at the funeral home. A funeral service will be held Saturday, March 12, at 1 p.m., at The Congregational Church of Littleton, 330 King St., with a reception following the service. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Glenn Drinkwater Memorial Fund, established in support of his children. Contributions should be directed to the Northern Bank & Trust Company, PO Box 597, Littleton, MA 01460. Alternatively, donations may be made in Glenn's name to Habitat for Humanity or to the ASPCA.
