

LOWELL SUN

Harriette B. Eggleton

HUBBARDSTON – Harriette B. Eggleton, age 60, beloved wife of the late Terrence Eggleton, died Sunday, February 21, 2010 from an extended illness.

Born in Quincy on November 6, 1949, she was a daughter of the late Robert W. Hudson of Littleton and the late Vera G. Ross of Marlborough.

Harriette was employed by Home Staffing, LLC of Worcester. She was a former graduate of Littleton High School. Recently residing in Hubbardston, she was also a 20-year resident in Maine.

Harriette loved the outdoors and especially gardening, but most of all she was a devoted mother who cherished her two boys and her family.

Survivors include her two sons, Derek Eggleton of Acton and Justin "Lee" Eggleton of Hubbardston; stepfather, William Ross of Marlborough; loving sisters, Linda L'Esperence of Lunenburg, Pamela Nichols and her husband, Lawrence, of Acton, and Deborah Hudson of Bridgewater. She is also survived by her loving brothers Robert H. Hudson of West Concord, Thomas H. Hudson IV and his wife, Rhyanne, of Westford and William B. Hudson and his wife, Susan, of Douglas. She was also a sister to the late Scott D. Hudson of Maynard.

Harriette Eggleton

Harriette also leaves her beloved 14 nieces and nephews and 13 great-nieces and great-nephews.

In lieu of flowers for those who wish, donations in Harriette's name may be made to: Veterans Inc., 69 Grove Street, Worcester, MA 01605. Online donations may be made via this link: www.massveterans.org.

Relatives and friends are invited to a Memorial Visitation at the Badger Funeral Home, 347 King Street, Littleton on Friday evening, March 6, from 5-8. Memorial Service at the Badger Funeral Home Saturday, March 7, at noon.