Mary Hobart	Littleton
	Mary (Maslen) Hobart, 72, formerly of Littleton, died at Suburban Hospital in Bethesda, Maryland of a massive heart attack and other complications, surrounded by her loving family. She was born in Braintree, MA on December 8, 1937 daughter of the late Albert and Ruby Maslen. She had made her home in Littleton for over 20 years and currently lived in Phippsburg, Maine and Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Mary actively volunteered with Help Committee, Littleton Housing Authority, Littleton Scholarship Trust, Boosters Club, and Garden Club. Her hobbies included her family, and gardening. She also enjoyed entertaining friends and family, sailing, bird watching and feeding wildlife. She was a friend to all she knew, had a smile, a shoulder or a cup of tea for anyone who came to her. She never failed to support, show love, or take care of her family and friends. Mary will be missed by all who ever knew her. The world would be less bright without her constant smile and force of personality. Her survivors include her husband Chester E. Hobart, a son Geoffrey Hobart and her daughter in law Beth of Bethesda, MD, and their children Katherine and David, A daughter Lorie and her son in law Scott and their children Alyssa, Christopher, Geoffrey and Gregory, and a daughter Debbie and her partner Todd and her children Megan and Allie. She is also survived by a brother Eric Maslen of Attleboro, and a sister Eleanor Joy Johnson of Deering, NH. Visiting Hours will be held at Badger Funeral Home, 347 King St, Littleton, on Friday from 7-9 pm. A mass of Christian Burial will be held at St. Anne's Church, 75 King Street., Littleton, and Saturday Jan 9, at 10 am. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Maine Coast Heritage
