Edith C. Jenkins

Dec. 24, 1988

Edith C. Jenkins, 82, died Dec. 24, 1988 in the New England Memorial Hospital Stoneham. Born in Melrose and until recently hadbeen a resident of Littleton for 40 years. She was a retired registered nurse. She is survived by two brothers, George A. Jenkins of Manchester, N.H. and Francis B. Jenkins of Melrose; one sister, Marie E. Johnson of Seattle Washington, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held at Trinity Church in Melrose, Tues. Dec. 27 at 9:30 a.m. Burial was in Wyoming Cemetery, Melrose.

She was a registered nurse at Children's Hospital in Boston, and was a graduate of their nursing program in 1928; she retired in 1949. She graduated in 1925 from Melrose High School and represented the Melrose Girl Scouts at the World Conference in Foxlease, England, 1924. She was the first Golden Eaglette in Melrose Girl Scouts. She was captain of Melrose High School basketball team and a member of Trinity Church, Melrose.