Charlotte Leahy

Charlotte (Woodbury) Leahy, 95, died at Littleton House Nursing Home on Monday, June 9.

She was born in Boston on Feb. 8, 1902 daughter of the late Daniel and Fannie (Paul) Woodbury and was the wife of the late William E. Leahy who died in 1947. Mrs. Leahy made her home in Littleton most of her life.

Following graduation from Littleton High School, she attended an art school in Boston. She married in 1930 and, after her husband's death, owned and operated M. W. Leahy Trucking Co. for many years.

Mrs. Leahy summered in Annisquam, Rockport area for many years and was a member of the Sandy Bay Yacht Club and Annisquam Yacht Club. She was a member of the Rockport Garden Club, the First Church Unitarian of Littleton as well as the Unitarian Alliance.

Mrs. Leahy is survived by her son, John W. Leahy of Littleton, two grandchildren, Elizabeth Leahy of Rockport and Michael Leahy of Littleton and one great-grandchild.

A Memorial service was held at the First Church Unitarian, Foster Street, Littleton on Saturday, June 14. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Steeple Fund, First Church Unitarian, 19 Foster St., Littleton.

Badger Funeral Home, Littleton was in charge of the arrangements.

Littleton Independent

1999