LOWELL SUN

Maria Walker

Maria Walker, 94, a longtime Littleton resident, died recently at Littleton House Nursing Home.

She was born in Palmyra, N.Y., on May 21, 1903, daughter of the late Edwin and Aimee (Bovet) Walker.

She worked many years at Veryfine Products, retiring in her 80s. An avid horse lover, she became the leader the Littleton Regional Hack and Tack 4-H Riding Club in 1949 and remained active with the club for about 30 years.

Ms. Walker traveled around town by horse-drawn carriage into the 1970s, when she switched to a 10-speed bicycle.

Ms. Walker, who never married, boarded with several Littleton families before moving to the Littleton House Nursing Home.

She leaves two nephews: Donald "Gordon" Walker of Williamson, N.Y. and Albert "John" Walker of Rochester, N.Y.; and a niece Janice Hermenet of New Castle, Ind.

Private services were held in New York.