Nancy Abbott Kiely

ACTON, formerly Littleton – Nancy (Wentworth) Abbott Kiely, 77, of Acton, MA., formerly of Littleton, MA. and Medford, MA., passed away peacefully on Tuesday morning, February 16, 2010 at Emerson Hospital in Concord, MA.

Nan was born in 1932 to Austin and Lillian Wentworth of Portland, ME. She was educated at the Austine School for the Deaf and graduated from Mount St. Mary's High School in Burlington, VT. After graduation, she resided with her family in Medford, MA. Nan married Eugene J. Abbott of Charlestown, MA in April, 1965. They were married for 30 years, spending most of those years in Littleton, MA, and later years partly in Fort Myers, FL. In 1998, she married John (Jack) R. Kiely of Acton, MA, spending 11 happy years as his wife and companion. She enjoyed knitting, photography, traveling and spending time with family.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a brother, Austin Wentworth of Boston; three children, Laura Abbott of Ayer, Carolyn Abbott of Westford and Eugene Abbott and his wife, Jennifer of Nashua, NH; one granddaughter, Vanessa; four step-children, Maureen Vanderhoof and her husband, Jan of Westminster, Kevin Kiely and his wife, Maura of Ireland, Diane Kiely of Nashua, NH and John Kiely and his wife, Martha of Hollis, NH; nine step-grandchildren, and one great step-grandson, Jack.

Calling hours were Thurs. Feb. 18th from 5-9pm at the Acton Funeral Home, 470 Massachusetts Ave., (Rte 111) Acton, MA. The funeral Mass was celebrated Fri. Feb. 19th at 10:30am in St. Elizabeth's of Hungary Church, 89 Arlington St., Acton, MA, burial followed in Mt. Hope Cemetery, Central St, West Acton. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your favorite charity in her memory.