LAKEVILLE, MA -- After a courageous fifteen-month battle with cancer, Carole LeBlanc, wife of Patricia Corbett, died peacefully on Thursday, January 26, 2012 at her home in Lakeville, MA with her family TEAM by her side.

Born in Littleton, MA, she was the daughter of Edna M. LeBlanc and the late Gordon J. LeBlanc. Carole was raised in Littleton, MA, later attended Westfield State College, and has lived in Lakeville for the past 14 years. Carole worked as a self-employed Equine trainer and instructor and was a member of the Cranberry Country Pony Club. Carole enjoyed; horseback riding, kayaking, seaside vacationing, playing cribbage, teaching and helping others, and most importantly, spending precious time with family and friends. Carole was an active member of the Unitarian Universalist Society in Middleboro. In addition to her wife, Patricia, and her mother Edna LeBlanc, she is survived by her 10 siblings; Cecile Johnson and her husband Keith, Gordon LeBlanc and his wife Donna, Phyllis Worthley, Helene Tassone and her husband Pasquale, Nannette Foley, Michelle Duffett and her husband Al, Roger LeBlanc and his wife Mary, Andrea LeBlanc, Yvonne Cedergren and her husband Eric, and Donna Arnold and her husband Peter. She is also survived by her beloved in-laws, 28 nieces and nephews, 9 great-nieces and nephews as well as many aunts, uncles, relatives and friends.

LEBLANC -- In lieu of flowers, please consider a gift in Carole's memory by making a donation to Team Lexie and Kristen c/o Dana Farber Cancer Institute, 10 Brookline Place, West 6th Floor, Brookline, MA 02445, or The Lung Cancer Alliance P.O. BOX 418372, Boston, MA 02241. Visitation will be held on Friday February 3rd, 2012 from 5-8 PM at the Dahlborg-MacNevin Funeral Home, 280 Bedford Street, Lakeville, MA 02347. A memorial service will be held on Saturday February 4th, 2012 at 10:00 AM at the Unitarian Universalist Society in Middleboro, MA.
